When the 2024 Ballon d'Or nominees were revealed in the autumn, Mohamed Salah was the only Liverpool player on the 4 list. While Alisson Becker deserved to be included (if not in the Ballon d'Or stakes, certainly in the running for 4 the Yashin Trophy) after his individual heroics, it certainly wasn't a surprise to see so little Anfield representation.

After all, Jürgen 4 Klopp's side had endured a miserable 2024/23 season, failing to qualify for the Champions League and exiting the competition at 4 the round of 16 stage with a heavy 6-2 aggregate defeat to Real Madrid. While these are ostensibly individual awards, 4 they are almost always viewed through the prism of collective accomplishment, and so Liverpool's broader failures were costly for some 4 of its better players.

On Wednesday, the shortlist was released for another of football's most prestigious prizes — a place in 4 the FIFPro World XI — and again only one Liverpool player made the cut. This time, it was Virgil van 4 Dijk rather than Salah.

The first thing to understand here is that, while 4 it's ostensibly a calendar year award, the best XI is in practice determined by the last complete season. That's why, 4 for instance, Kevin De Bruyne has been nominated, despite hardly kicking a ball since June because of injury.

The second is 4 that, unlike other awards, this one is solely in the hands of the players, rather than journalists, pundits or pundits. 4 According to FIFPro, nearly 22,000 men's players cast their votes for this year's team.

You can't dispute most of the names 4 on the list of attackers. Erling Haaland shattered records in firing Manchester City to the treble, Lionel Messi produced an 4 all-time great World Cup campaign to lead Argentina to glory, and Kylian Mbappé combined a spectacular performance in the final 4 with 41 goals at club level. Elsewhere, Karim Benzema bagged 31 goals for Real Madrid, Harry Kane got 32 for 4 Spurs and Vinícius Jr. mixed 23 goals with 21 assists. Salah, meanwhile, netted 30 and set up 16 more in all 4 competitions, and clearly, based on Kane's involvement after a season in which Spurs finished eighth, collective woes aren't an automatic 4 disqualifier. Still, you wouldn't feel too aggrieved if any of the other forwards claimed the last spot alongside surefire inclusions 4 Haaland and Messi. The real problem is that Salah wasn't nominated at all.

The one player who doesn't have remotely as 4 strong a case is Cristiano Ronaldo, who scored three goals in 16 appearances for Manchester United before having his contract 4 terminated when he furiously spoke out against the club. He'd already made his last appearance for the Red Devils when 4 he traveled to the World Cup, where he failed to score from open play and lost his place in the 4 starting line-up for the knockout stages.

His subsequent return of 14 goals in 19 games for Saudi Pro League side Al-Nassr 4 was impressive on paper but, as Twenty First Group analyst Aurel Nazmiu noted at the time, that division sat somewhere 4 between League One and League Two in quality. That has not substantially changed since and Ronaldo's inclusion is therefore baffling.

On 4 that basis, it's egregious that Ronaldo features on the shortlist, and it's pretty clear that he's only there on the 4 basis of his pre-existing global reputation. Some would question how much all of this really matters compared to team success, 4 and whether Liverpool supporters should really care. Jürgen Klopp and those that matter, after all, already know exactly what the 4 Egyptian offers.

But what this tells us is that, despite establishing himself as one of the greatest players in Premier League 4 history and one of the best of the modern era, Salah remains underrated, both by the media and, as it 4 turns out, his peers. In the second half of the season, once he returns from AFCON, he can continue to 4 show exactly why that is unfair.
