Sport TV is a Portuguese sports-oriented premium cable and satellite television network with seven premium channels in Portugal, one sports news channel and one channel in Portuguese-speaking Africa.

The first channel, then only known as Sport TV, was launched on 16 September 1998.

It is owned by Altice Portugal, NOS, Vodafone Portugal and Global Media Group (and originally had the participation of RTP).

It is available in almost all television distribution operators in Portugal as a premium subscription channel.

Sport TV broadcasts mainly association football, basketball, volleyball, futsal, rugby, surf, golf, athletics, wrestling, and American sports, combat sports, auto racing, and tennis.

It also features debates, news, and sports reports.

All Primeira Liga matches are exclusively broadcast by Sport TV, with the exception of Benfica home matches, which are broadcast on the club's channel, BTV.

History [edit]

On 16 September 2005, seven years after the opening of the first channel, Sport TV launched a second channel, SportTV 2.

It regularly broadcasts alternative sports such as mountaineering, cycling and radical sports.

The channel was available only through ZON TV Funtastic Life package, but the model did not work.

They relaunched the channel as a premium channel, also available on Cabovisão and Portugal Telecom's MEO.

This was followed in June 2008 by SportTV 3.

Controversies [edit]

Sport TV is widely regarded as anti-competitive, since it is the only group of channels in Portugal with the rights to broadcast the Primeira Liga matches (except Benfica home games).[2][3]

In September 2007, Sport TV sent a cease and desist to a Portuguese live TV streaming website tvtuga.

com because the latter was providing links to streams of UEFA Champions League matches that only SPORT TV had the rights to broadcast in Portugal.

This has caused great public concern with regard to the monopoly abuse status of the SPORT TV channels.[4][5]

On 17 January 2011, Sport TV was criticized by Benfica after a match against Académica.

Benfica's director of communications at the time, João Gabriel, accused the channel commentators of bias against the club.[6][7]
