The global betting company 1xBet announces the great Spanish derby.

On March 19, two colossuses will meet at Camp Nou, and the world will enjoy the great struggle with bated breath. What are the chances of 5 eternal rivals to win?

History of games

It will be the 246th official match between Barcelona and Real in all competitions – 5 Primera, Copa del Rey, Super Cup, Spanish League Cup and Champions League. So far, Madrid is ahead: 101 wins, 48 5 draws and 96 losses, with a goal difference of 397-410.

This year, the Catalans have beaten their opponent twice: the first 5 victory was in the Super Cup final in mid-January (3-1), and then they played in the Spanish Cup semi-finals. Barça 5 came to the Bernabéu, scored the only goal in the counterattack, parked the bus and won with a minimum score. 5 Madrid even owned the ball more – this is an almost unique achievement for the Clásico of recent decades. The 5 hosts have spent 65% of their playing time with a ball, Real's best result against Barça since the 2013/14 season. 5 And yet, despite the Merengues' multiple attacks, there was a feeling that Barça would not miss even if the referee 5 added another 50 minutes to the main time.

Real Madrid

After that failure, the chair under Ancelotti began to stagger. The coach 5 cannot start the Madrid machine: before the winning game against Espanyol (3-1), the team did not win in three matches 5 in a row, and they could not even score against Barça (0-1) and Betis (0-0). However, even in the game 5 against the Catalonian capital second-best team, which Madrid won without any apparent effort, the absence of Karim Benzema was noticeable 5 occasionally. Without him, Madrid's attack does not look very effective. The French striker is expected to return to the starting 5 line-up against Barcelona and help his team's attack sparkle with new colors.

Barcelona

Barcelona cannot live a measured life as a championship 5 leader and a club world championship winner (yes, we are talking about Real) – as soon as the team overcame 5 the crisis, the Blaugranes management was suspected of corruption.

Catalans have been accused of paying millions of euros for three years 5 to a firm owned by the vice president of the Royal Spanish Football Federation's Referees Technical Committee. It turned out 5 that the payments had been dragging on since 2001. Although nothing threatens Barça in Spain yet, they still may have 5 to respond before UEFA since the Champions League regulations imply a ban for one season if the club was directly 5 or indirectly involved in influencing the matches results at the national or international level.

With all that, Barcelona came to Bilbao 5 for Sunday's match against Athletic. And they faced a very unexpected reception: Basques fans began to throw fake money on 5 the field with the word "Mafia" and the Barcelona logo, and Athletic players beat their opponents' legs for an hour 5 and a half. At first, this did not help much – Barça opened the scoring in the first half's last 5 seconds. A few minutes before the end of regular time, the hosts equalized the score, but the insidious VAR discovered 5 a rules violation that happened before the decisive attack and was completely invisible to the fans in the stands. Basques 5 felt robbed, but in the end, Barcelona got three points in this match.

After a minimal victory over Athletic, the Xavi 5 team has an interesting statistic: this season, the Catalans won with a minimal score for the 9th time, a club 5 record. La Liga record for this indicator is 11 matches in a season.

If you look at the standings, you'll see 5 Barcelona has 65 points, and Real has 56. Get popcorn and make yourself comfortable: soon, they will face again, and 5 if Madrid does not win, then Xavi can be carefully congratulated on the title. This battle will become legendary, and 5 therefore the top bookmaker 1xBet offers the highest odds for this match. Bet on the game and hit the big 5 jackpot!

Tyson Fury: El Gypsy King que reflexiona sobre la fama y la depresión antes de su pelea contra Usyk

Tyson Fury puede ser grosero y tosco. Puede hacerte sentir incómodo y avergonzado con sus arrebatos y prejuicios. El gigante campeón mundial de pesos pesados WBC también puede parecer petulante y ridículo cuando insulta a sus oponentes. Pero hay una diferencia reveladora entre la versión de dibujos animados del Gypsy King y el hombre reflexivo que habla con franqueza sobre su vida alejada de la agitación de la semana de la pelea.

En la madrugada del domingo en Riad, alrededor de la 1 am hora local, Fury peleará contra Oleksandr Usyk, el rey de IBF, WBA y WBO. El ganador se convertirá en el campeón indiscutible de los pesos pesados por primera vez este siglo y todo parecerá salvaje y extravagante en comparación con el estado contemplativo de Fury ahora.

La vida más allá del ring

El hombre de 35 años ha hablado abiertamente sobre la depresión y la fama. También ha revelado que come hasta cinco cenas de rosbif a la semana y adora a un rottweiler llamado Cash que nunca le responde. Al mismo tiempo, se ha negado, con mérito, a darle a su intrigante pelea con Usyk una fuerte venta.

En cambio, Fury se detiene cuando se le pregunta si la fama es una bendición y una maldición. "Es una maldición, desde luego. Pero no, no una bendición. Todo el mundo quiere ser famoso durante cinco minutos, pero no todos los días durante 10 años".

El precio de la fama

Fury ha sido elogiado y vilipendiado desde mucho antes de que ganara su primer título mundial de pesos pesados, contra Wladimir Klitschko en 2024. Le siguió una clase magistral estratégica al caer en una profunda depresión. Fury subió a casi 24 stone mientras era abatido por el alcohol y las drogas. Llegó a acercarse a quitarse la vida más de una vez durante los dos años y medio que estuvo fuera del ring.

Le pregunté a Fury si todavía tiene días malos cuando el perro negro de la depresión viene por él. "Siempre", dice. "Ningún dos días son los mismos para mí. Arriba y abajo como una montaña rusa".

Cuando fue su último mal día. "Hace un par de días. Estoy arriba y abajo todo el tiempo, como una montaña rusa. Pero sé cómo luchar contra él más de lo que solía hacer".

Frank Warren, su promotor, habló esta semana sobre el hecho de que Fury ha luchado con trastorno bipolar durante años. ¿Fury se preocupa de que pueda despertarse el sábado por la mañana, justo horas antes de enfrentar a Usyk, sintiéndose desolado nuevamente?

"No, porque soy invencible en el día de la pelea. No puedo ser afectado porque no soy Tyson Fury. Es el Rey Gitano - mentalidad completamente diferente".

La boxeo, por toda su brutalidad, ha sido la salvación de Fury. "Siempre he disfrutado de la boxeo desde que era un niño pequeño. Siempre he amado el entrenamiento, el sparring. Pero nunca he sido alguien que la vista como algo que no es. Siempre la he minimizado".
