It is believed that a British and his Nepalese guide are dead after reaching the peak of Mount Everest on Wednesday, said a company advisor.

Dan Paterson, 40 years old and Pastenji Sherpa (23), reached the peak just before 5h on Wednesday but were not heard since then.

The partner of Paterson created a website for crowdfunding, which allows the operation and rescues. A helicopter with specialized teams costs about 150 thousand dollars; the site Go Fund Me reached 118,000 euros on Saturday night.

"The family of Dan and I need the payment solution provider for online casinos help", wrote Woodhead on the site.

Tragically, during the payment solution provider for online casinos descent Daniel disappeared and there was no contact or sighting of him since then.

"Time is essential payment solution provider for online casinos in a situation like this, and we are mobilizing all the resources we can for localizing Dan.

"Conducting a search and rescue operation on Everest is a very complex and expensive effort. We are not specialists in this and there is no guarantee of success."

Lakpa Sherpa, founder of the company 8K Expeditions that the two men used for the mission of rescue of Everest and said he had searched for them "heroically" after reaching their peak at 4h40 (local time) in the United Kingdom.

Sherpa added: "Despite the exhaustive search efforts, we regret to confirm that Daniel and Pastenji could not be recovered".

The news that the rescue was being canceled came payment solution provider for online casinos from a report on more deaths.

The Kenyan Joshua Cheruiyot Kirui, 40 years old, was found only 19 meters below the peak of the dome and disappeared on Thursday. His guide, 44 years old, is still missing payment solution provider for online casinos Nawang Sherpa.

A Nepalese climber, Binod Babu Bastakoti, died of a disease while descending on Friday.

Images posted on social networks showed hundreds of mountaineers in line to climb the dome this week, what specialists say is a greater risk for alpine payment solution provider for online casinos.

On Wednesday was the most active day of the Everest season, with about 200 mountaineers taking advantage of a meteorological window to attempt to reach the peak.

and graphics online seem to show hundreds of people on the Hillary Step, a vertical face near the top of the Everest mountain at about 8,800m.

The disappearance of Paterson comes after a massive avalanche of snow and ice on the mountain. A cornice - a mass of hardened snow protruding from the precipice - é pensado para ter entrado payment solution provider for online casinos colapso, arrastando alpinistas pelo lado das montanhas!

Alan Hinkes, um alpinista que chegou ao cume do Everest payment solution provider for online casinos 1996, disse à Sky News: "Você só pode sobreviver por algumas horas nessa altitude. É a zona de morte devido à falta da pressão atmosférica e às temperaturas muito frias".

"Então, ficar payment solution provider for online casinos uma dessas filas não é boa ideia porque você está morrendo lentamente nessas altitude."

Vinayak Malla, um guia da Federação Internacional de Guias das Associações Montanha que escalou o Everest no início desta semana escreveu payment solution provider for online casinos seu Instagram: "Eu me senti diferente do meu passado".

Ele acrescentou: "Depois da cúpula, cruzamos o Passo Hillary. O tráfego estava se movendo lentamente e de repente uma cornija entrou payment solution provider for online casinos colapso alguns metros à nossa frente; havia também um Cornice sob nós."

"Quando a cornija entrou payment solution provider for online casinos colapso, quatro alpinistas quase pereceram e foram presos na corda.

"Infelizmente, dois alpinistas ainda estão desaparecidos. Tentamos atravessar mas foi impossível devido ao tráfego na linha fixa."
