Flamengo vs. Millonarios: mundoINTERAQtica Liberta... Gabriel Barbosa previews the match. The Flamengo will face off against the Millonarios in the first match of the Copa Libertadores group stage tonight at 7:30 pm (Brasília time) at the El Campín stadium in Bogotá, Colombia. Despite the absence of some of its main players due to injuries or illnesses, the rubro-negro team is determined to put on a good show. Fans can catch the battle between the two teams on ESPN or the Star+ streaming platform. With their victory in the first leg of the final against Nova Iguaçu last Saturday, the Flamengo is looking good and ready to put their winning streak to the test in Colombia. A historical team with some great players, this game will surely be a thriller. Those who don't miss out should tune in now. The Flamengo will face off against the Millonarios, a Colombian team that hasn't had much success in recent years but is still very competitive. It's time to see what they're worth.

Since its last victory against Fortaleza, the Millonarios have been on a winning streak, and it would be great for them to win against the Flamengo.

As coach Tite states, "I am very proud of the work done by this magnificent team." After their victory against Nova Iguaçu, the team is in high morale and will surely give their all in this match. The Uruguayan midfielder De La Cruz, an important player in the team's game, may not participate due to a grade 1 injury.

In case you missed it, here are some of the key data about the game:

?The Flamengo is in the lead with 28 goals scored and only one conceded in ten games played.

?Their next opponent, Millonarios, recently won the Colombian championship and is currently in good form, having won two games in a row.

?The Flamengo had a great qualifying campaign, winning 10 of their 12 games.

?The last time these two teams met was in 1952, when the Flamengo lost 4-1 to what is considered one of the greatest teams in Millonarios history, led by Argentina's Di Stéfano. This duel will undoubtedly be exciting and full of goals.

Flamengo midfielder De La Cruz and lateral Wesley did not travel to Colombia due to physical issues.

?Millonarios has not been a frequent competitor in recent years, but they played their last Libertadores match in 2024 and were eliminated in the group stage.

?This will be a clash between two exciting teams, don't miss it! Stay tuned for more updates from any location.

If you only read this far, here's the key point: the Flamengo and the Millonarios face off tonight at 7:30 pm in Bogotá, with the Flamengo aiming to continue their good form while the Millonarios wants to take advantage of a recent winning spell.

?The game starts at 7:30 PM (Brasília time), don't miss it! The Flamengo and Millonarios game promises to be enjoyable, so we're excited for the match later today. For more updates on your favorite team and to get inside information, follow us @SUPERFC on social media.
